

LEARN ARABIC

تعلم اللغة العربية

Now offering private or small-group tutoring!

- READ the alphabet, vowel and consonant pronunciation in words, and complete sentences in Modern Standard Arabic.
- WRITE the varying shapes for each letter, link them together, and create your own words and sentences.
- LISTEN to formal and colloquial pronunciation, cadence, and expressions, and begin understanding on your own.
- SPEAK on conversational topics with impeccable pronunciation and expression, using your own vocabulary.

FREE first lesson! For more information, call 508.330.9248 or e-mail abekatz11@gmail.com.

Abe Katz earned his BA in Middle Eastern Studies and Arabic Language at Middlebury College in 2011. He lived for a year in Alexandria, Egypt while studying at Middlebury's School in the Middle East, and then in Muscat, Oman with the State Department's Critical Language Scholarship. In 2011, he was awarded University of Texas at Austin's Center for Arabic Study Abroad (CASA) Grant, but declined it to become a teacher. He is Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) rated Advanced in Arabic.

He tutored Middlebury students in Arabic from 2010-2011, before teaching middle school math in South Dakota from 2011-2014. He has provided professional development training to k-12 teachers since 2013.

